ABOUT ME

I am someone who loves logic and exploration. I love programming and solving problems through coding. Also i am interest in astronomy, it shows that the subject has a curiosity about the universe which tries to understand how vast space and it's hidden secrets. Being an introvert, probably i like to think internally rather than have shallow communication with people. My hobbies demonstrate a mix of critical thinking skill and a sense of awareness towards the unknown universe around us.

HOBBIES AND INTERESTS

Photography

I am passionate about photography as it enables me to capture and discover the globe through my camera. I like noticing beauty in ordinary moments and sharing my point of view in every click. It's an art form, which makes me hold time still and narrate through pictures.
